

Analysis of the Results of Questionnaire on the Importance of Publishing Open Data for Enhancing the Transparency Frameworks Related to Government Work

| Questionnaire Title  | Importance of Publishing Open Data for Enhancing the Transparency Frameworks Related to Government Work  |             |
|--|--|-------------|
| Respondents and Participation Rates  | Employers  | 28.57%      |
|  | Insured  | 57.14%      |
|  | Beneficiaries  | 14.29%      |
| Number of Responses  |  | 7           |
| Scientific Level of Respondents  | Postgraduate Studies   | -           |
|  | University   | 57.14%      |
|  | Secondary  | 42.86%      |
|  | Other  | -           |
| Questions  |  | Percentages |
| The publication of open data enhances the public confidence in the GPSSA's practices   |  | 71.4%       |
| The published data on the GPSSA has high credibility                                   |  | 71.4%       |
| The published data helps provide the necessary support when making important decisions |  | 57.1%       |
| The published data on the GPSSA is characterized by diversity and comprehensiveness    |  | 57.1%       |
| The GPSSA is the official source of information on retirement                          |  | 71.4%       |
| Analysis of Questionnaire  | The results reveal the importance of raising awareness of the value of open data and using other means in addition to the website, to share this data with all community brackets, such as communication channels or publications. |             |
| Recommendations  | Raising awareness of the importance of open data, and using other publication channels   |             |
| Department Concerned with the Implementation of Recommendations                        | The Government Communications Office   |             |