1. Due to long waiting queue for appointment.it will help by overcoming this.
2. No way!
3. some people not able to get access from normal clinic due to financial problem,
4. I had my MRI scan last night at PH diagnostics Dubai and had called back your MRI technician an hour later due to itchiness and rashes on my arms. Now, at 3am, my body is full of rashes. Please advise if this has been triggered by MRI or the robe i have been asked to wear in your center or the cleanliness of your center.
